MEDIA RELEASE

23rd October 2018

RSL supports the reputation of Ben Roberts- Smith VC, MG, and other Special Forces soldiers.

The Returned & Services League of Australia (RSL) is disappointed that the reputation of Ben Roberts- Smith VC, MG, and that of other special force's soldiers, continue to be tarnished by allegations in the Australian media.

The RSL's primary concern is for the welfare of veterans and their families, and though allegations made against our members must be seriously considered, they also must be addressed in appropriate legal forums.

The correct forum for resolution of these matters is through legal systems and not public and media speculation.

The RSL continues to support our veteran and serving communities and in this, the Centenary year of Armistice, we remind Australian's everywhere of the sacrifices made by our military personnel and 'thanks you for your service'.
